THE COMMON COUNCIL

Business Done at Monday Night's Regular Session.

STORM CENTRE MR. BASTIAN'S DESK

"After the Cyclone Comes the Fairest Weather" and Harmony Reigned When the Session Ended—Many Important Measures.

The regular meeting of the Common Council was quite a lively one, Monday night, but as no serious damage was done and as it ended in harmony the "scrap" is not detailed here. All of the members were present except Alderman Wood, who started for Syracuse, Monday night.

The business transacted is condensed as follows:

PETITIONS.

That Mrs. Sarah E. Vail cut down a sidewalk on Hillside avenue. Referred to street committee.

Horton avenue residents for three incandescent lights. Referred to lighting committee.

Remonstrance against proposed work on Ogden street. Previously referred to the street committee and was reported unfavorably at this session.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Chief Higham reported that the terms of the officers of the fire department will expire June 15, and on his suggestion an election will be held June 13 and Alderman Gavin was named as representative of the Council at this election.

Chief Higham's report of the meetings of the fire companies was accepted.

The proposed sewer in Courtland street was ordered built on receiving notice from the Board of Health.

The Council accepted the invitation of the Decoration Day committee to participate in the exercises.

DISAPPROVED BY THE MAYOR.

Mayor Elwood appeared at this juncture and explained that he had disapproved the proposed grading of Prospect avenue, from East Main to DeWitt streets. He said that there was a big cut and fill and it would cost too much at present.

This led Alderman-at-Large Bastian to make a thrilling speech, which was an attack on Alderman Waldorf. Alderman Waldorf and Gavin responded and Kagiore Harris was called on, and after people had been attracted to the room from the street President Lawrence called the gentlemen to order, and all was quiet for the rest of the evening.

Mr. Waldorf finally brought his resolution up in a new way, and it was referred to the street committee. It provides for the fixing of Prospect avenue from East Main street to the top of the hill, and Prince street from Grand avenue to Prospect avenue.

It was expected that the sewer commissioners would be present at this meeting to report upon the Gungus street sewer, but they did not appear.

Mayor Elwood called attention to the resubmitting of Sprague avenue, which was being done in two or three miles of water, which would make it necessary to do the work over again next year.

Capt. Veber's report, Clerk Taylor's report and Fire Inspector Hirst's report for April were accepted.

NEW WORK.

By Mr. Gardner: That the fire open a sewer they have plugged at Roberts street. Carried.

By Mr. O'Neal: Wisner avenue be graded and guttered from the O and W tracks to Highland avenue. Referred to street committee.

By Mr. Gavin: That the fire committee have the city's jumper repaired at an expense of not more than $20. Carried.

By Mr. Gavin: That 500 feet of fire hose be purchased. Carried.

By Mr. O'Neal: That a top dressing of crushed stone be placed on Linden avenue between Franklin street and Wickham avenue. Referred.

By Mr. Gavin: That the sidewalk be relaid on northwest side of West Main street between Monahan avenue and the Erie tracks in twenty days. Carried.

By Mr. Gavin: The following having failed to do work ordered by the city and finally done by the latter, the cost is ordered charged against their properties as follows: D. R. Miller, North Street, $21.00; D. L. Decker, West Main street, $71.00; L. Morehouse, Prospect street, $58.31.

DOG ORDINANCE.

Mr. O'Neal introduced a dog ordinance which was adopted and is printed in another column.

WEST MAIN STREET PAVING.

The paving of West Main street was referred to the street committee to confer with Receiver Royce and to secure a map from the city engineer. The city's share of the expense has been estimated at about $1,300. It was ordered paved with Mack blocks when a map is presented.

Houston avenue was ordered graded and guttered, a favorable report of the street committee having been given.

The request for lights on Gardner avenue was granted.

MORE GOSHEN RUNAWAYS.

Two Youngsters Started, Monday, to See the World—Experiences of Last Week's Adventurers. Did Not Scare Them.

From our Goshen Correspondent.

Gerald Deun and Harry Lyons, two boys, aged about fourteen, have failed to profit by the experience that recently overtook a trio of their schoolmates, who left home and kindred to see out and see the world on their own account, but after a brief absence, during which the unpleasant side of life was always uppermost, were glad to get back lean and hungry. Deun and Lyons left this village, Monday, about 10 a. m., and it is believed that their intended destination was Bridgeport, Conn.

Young Deun is the son of J. A. Deun, of this village. He ran away a short time ago in company with Johnnie Kane, but returned after an absence of several days, having been forsaken at Bridgeport by Kane, who started from that place to Buffalo. The boy is as bright as a new nickel and enjoyed his first trip immensely, having been well entertained by the friends he made among the horsemen, to whom young Kane, who has an extensive acquaintance, introduced him.

Lyons is the son of Henry Lyons, an Erie engineer. It was only the other day that he declined a cordial invitation from the boys who ran away, last week, to join their party.

The police in various places have been requested to keep a lookout for the runaway youngsters, and it is quite probable that within a short time they will be glad to sneak home and stay there.

TOWN OF CRAWFORD WINS.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court sustains Judge Beattie in the Terwilliger Case.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in Brooklyn handed down a decision, Sunday, affirming the decision of the county judge of Orange county, reversing the judgment which Charles A. Terwilliger recovered against the town of Crawford, before a jury in Justice Eager's court at Montgomery, in March, 1898.

Mr. Terwilliger sued the town for $200 damages to his horse, claimed to have been received on an alleged defective bridge near Nine Bush, and after a trial lasting from noon until 4 a. m. the following day, the jury awarded the plaintiff a compromise verdict of $25, from which the town appealed to the county court.

Judge Beattie reversed the judgment in an opinion to the effect that the justice allowed improper evidence prejudicial to the town to get to the jury, and from this the plaintiff appealed to the appellate division, which court now unanimously affirms Judge Beattie's judgment, on his own opinion, thus finally settling the case in favor of the town.

Miss Hasbrouck, of Walden, was plaintiff's attorney and John C. R. Taylor, of this city, conducted the case for the town.

The Last Play of the Season.

While "Mr. Smooth" may disappoint some people who expect to laugh at every line Collier speaks, it cannot fail to delight all lovers of bright, refined comedy, well played by an excellent company and elaborately presented with special scenery. Collier has had no experience of several years with the best of companies, such as Augustin Daly's, of which he was a member for seven years, and has played in "The City Directory," "Hoss and Hoss," "Rice's Little Christmas," "Mr. Smooth" is said by the critics to be his best work to date and has given the best of satisfaction in all the cities where it has been played.

These Middletowners Will Go to Pecks, Kill This Season.

JAS. SMALL, BURGLAR

In Jail for Entering the Hankins Residence.

ONLY A FEW THINGS FOUND MISSING

Small's Attempts to Sell Goods Before Stealing Them—A Very Close-Mouthed Prisoner—Gave No Information Concerning Himself.

The negro whom Frances Hutchinson captured, Saturday night, as he was fleeing from the grounds of the George Hankins residence on Highland avenue, which had just been entered and robbed, was arraigned before Recorder Barnes, this morning. He gave his name as James Small and his place of residence as Albany. He was very uncommunicative and would say nothing about himself or his associates. He was held for the Grand Jury.

Mr. and Mrs. Hankins, who reached home from Washington, Monday night, looked over their ransacked and tumbled over house and were pleased to discover that apparently but very few things had been taken. Several dress patterns, which had not been made up, were missing, but this was all that a hasty examination showed to have been taken.

The police learned that Saturday afternoon Small called at Philip P. Cook's, corner of Fulton street and East avenue, and offered to sell sheets at thirty cents and blankets at thirty-five cents. When asked where the goods were he said he would deliver them, Sunday. He also called at George Reiding's and offered bedding for sale at very low prices which he said he would deliver, Sunday.

The police have not been able to find any trace of the men who were undoubtedly associated with Small in the burglary. The fact that Small tried to make sales for future delivery of plunder to be taken from the house makes it reasonably certain that he and his pals had "popped off" the Hankins residence as temporarily vacant and were preparing to loot it at their leisure. Had it not been for Mr. Hutchinson's timely discovery of the burglary, Mr. and Mrs. Hankins would doubtless be mourning, today, the loss of many of their household goods.

In a tramp raid, this afternoon, it is thought one of Small's accomplices was caught.

No Rain in Sight.

There is no rain in sight for this section, according to the reports of the Weather Bureau. Rain was prophesied, Monday, because of a storm moving up from the South, but when it reached the Delaware Cape it passed out to sea. A "disturbance" is reported in the Southwest and another in the Northwest, but a great many things may happen to them before they can reach here, and in the language of the Weather Bureau "disturbances" do not necessarily mean rain storms.

Port Jervis' Luckiest Man.

William Fuller, of Port Jervis, is the owner of a new bicycle which cost him just one cent. The wheel was put up to be repaired, with tickets ranging in price from one cent to seventy-five cents, and he got the one cent ticket and with it won the wheel. Such luck would make it possible for a man to "draw to a shoe string and get a tanyard." Mr. Fuller ought to travel. He's wasting his time in Port Jervis!

John Sherin Taken to Thrall Hospital.

John Sherin, who was so badly crushed between O. and W. cars, ten days ago, that his life was despaired of, was removed to Thrall Hospital, Monday afternoon, and reports from there, today, are to the effect that he is resting comfortably and that there is a fair chance for his recovery.
